

Live Q&A Prize Contest Rules

During the week of November 10-14, 2020 Good in Every Grain will be hosting Live Q&A with grain farmers for Ontario classroom. Teachers can sign up for a daily Live Q&A to talk with a grain farmer virtually and have their classroom questions answered!

All teachers who register and attend (with their class) a Live Q&A with a grain farmer will automatically be entered to win one of three cash prizes for classroom supplies.

Prizes include gift card(s) at a value of $1,000 for classroom supplies for an Ontario classroom.

Teachers must sign up for, and attend with their students, one of four live Q&A chats on the allotted dates and times. Times and dates can be found here:

<https://goodineverygrain.ca/2018/10/13/join-us-at-the-royal/>.

Teacher registrants/attendees will automatically be entered into a random draw. Three winners will be selected from registrant/attendee names. Grain Farmers of Ontario will contact the winning teachers directly for their prizes.

Please submit an email address and phone number to ensure we can contact you. Any registrants/applicants to the contest who do not provide credible contact information are ineligible to win prizes. There is only one submission per teacher/classroom.
